Biography

Jens Uhlendorf is a lawyer and partner in our Dusseldorf office. He is a member to Hogan Lovells' M&A practice area, core team member of the Diversified Industrials industry sector group and co-lead of the Chemicals and Industrial Products/Services Sub-Sector Group.

Jens is specialized on advising on and leading complex national and international M&A transactions, joint venture transactions and corporate reorganizations. Furthermore, clients turn to him for advice on complex issues in core corporate law, corporate governance, manager liability and corporate compliance.

Jens has advised on numerous M&A transactions, joint venture transactions and corporate reorganizations in, amongst others, the chemicals, paper and packaging, automotive, financial services, software/IT, and professional services industry.

Legal directories, such as JUVE and Legal 500, name Jens as a frequently recommended M&A and corporate lawyer. He frequently publishes on M&A and corporate law topics and is a regular speaker at conferences on such topics.

Jens is a dedicated pro bono legal advisor to business@school (an initiative of The Boston Consulting Group) and Ashoka.
